The Property

This beautiful four-bedroom, period detached cottage dating back some 350 years, set in an idyllic setting, with countryside views and a wealth of character, has been sympathetically updated by the current owners, whilst retaining many original features such as exposed beams and timbers, fireplaces, oak flooring and offers flexible family living accommodation.

Ground Floor

Coming in through the front door there is a hallway leading to a utility room and separate cloakroom. The well-appointed fitted kitchen/dining room with integrated appliances, feature log burning fire place has doors out to a patio area overlooking the pretty rear garden.

There is a cosy family room and study. In addition, there is a further, generous triple aspect reception room with double doors out to the rear garden, which can be used as a bedroom/guest suite as there is an adjoining shower room.

First Floor

On the first floor the charming spacious split level en-suite master bedroom with vaulted ceiling, exposed beams and built in wardrobes has lovely countryside views. There are a further two bedrooms one with fitted wardrobe both with lovely views and a family bathroom suite with heated towel rail and linen cupboard.

The elegant sitting room is truly impressive with its wealth of character, vaulted ceiling, exposed beams and timbers and staircase leading up to a Minstrel gallery with fitted bookcase/shelves making it an ideal study area. There are doors leading out onto a decked terrace area with spectacular views of the garden and beyond.

Outside

The Granary Cottage sits centrally within approximately 0.27 of an acre, enjoying far reaching views over the countryside and is approached over a private gravel driveway with parking for several car. The well-maintained, private country garden wraps around the property and is mainly laid to lawn, with mature flower/ shrub beds and trees.

There is a patio area overlooking the garden, ideal for entertaining and al fresco dining along with a brick workshop, with power and light, which would make an ideal home office.
